

Off-Campus Programs

All off-campus programs offer students the opportunity to complete a project in one term of full-time work. Advance preparation is required. Faculty advisors are in residence at IQP sites and some Humanities and Arts and MQP sites.

More details about current off-campus program offerings, including an up-to-date list of program locations can be found on eProjects. Find a listing of all global project centers here.