

AR 2750 : Topics in Studio Art

Specialty subjects are offered using the research and creative expertise of the department faculty. Content and format varies to suit the interest and needs of the faculty and students. Courses are defined through the registrar and may be repeated for different topics covered. Students may not receive additional credit for taking this course more than once with the same title.

Department

Art History/Architecture

Category

Category III (offered at discretion of dept/prgm)

Units 1/3

Recommended Background

AR 1100